The 1977 Quixotian staff is privileged to be able to dedicate this yearbook to a caring, hard-working, dedicated individual. This person has been a counselor at Agoura for the past ten years. He is well-informed, and constantly tries to update his materials in order to give students a better deal with classes and careers. He is continually involved in trying to give each individual student the information that will help him most. In addition, he planned and help build the Career Center, spending nearly every day at school this past summer in consultation with contractors and planners. Still, his plans are not yet finished: he has long-range plans for the counseling and career centers, hoping they will someday be complete.

Besides being a hardworking planner and worker, he takes the time to get to know the individual at Agoura; listening, lending a helping hand, or a shoulder to cry on when he is needed the most. For all these things, and more, we thank him, and it is with gratitude and pride that the Quixotian staff dedicates the 1977 yearbook to MR. MICHAEL COHEN.

Lyn,
Im glad you were in algebra, cause you reallly nice. Have a good summer & see you next year;
Love

REGISTRATION

Registration usually starts the year off with a bang and this year was no exception. As seniors drove up, harried administrators made final preparations for the onslaught. As they sauntered confidently into the gym, seniors greeted their friends and completed their business. The juniors were a little quicker because they weren't sure they'd get all of their classes. Sophomores moved quickly, pretending they were experts. Freshmen walked in looking lost, and as they wandered from teacher to teacher, they may have had some decidely negative ideas about Agoura High School. However, after the ordeal was over, the students could look forward to school which began in three days time.

WELCOME DANCE

Students were rowdy as they filed into the G building for the Welcome Dance, held on October 18. The band was Pacific from Canoga Park and students were able to listen to the music as they ate refreshments supplied by the student council.

The dance was the first big social event of the school year, and was designed to welcome last year's students as well as to greet the incoming freshmen. The Welcome Dance certainly gave students a lot to look forward to the rest of the school year.

TOP LEFT: Freshman cheerleader Lori Naylor "gets it on." LEFT: Students danced to some of today's most popular music. ABOVE: The band was Pacific from Canoga Park.

October 23, 1976 saw Agoura's annual Homecoming game played against rival Channel Islands. Though spirits were low due to a defeat it was a rewarding time of reuniting past alumni with friends and Alma Mater. The beautiful Miss Lynette Dupee was crowned the 1976 Homecoming Queen and reigned along with her court over the day's events culminating with the dance that night. Her court included Brooke Barke, Senior princess; Sue Johnson, Junior princess; Karen Hankammer, Sophomore princess; and Annette Hensley, Freshman princess.

Disc Jocky Sonny Melendrez was the honored guest at the dance that evening and hosted the presentation of the court. The music was provided by the band "Marbles."

SPIRIT WEEK

Assisted by Dave Baiz, our ASB president Tina Kiffe began a new Agoura tradition; Spirit Week. If consisted of a week of fun and funny activities for everyone. Some of the events that took place that week were bubble blowing contests, an eating contest and the ever popular pie throwing contest. The activities took place during both lunches and students turned out in droves to watch and participate.

The biggest bubble was blown by Freshman Juan Osborn. This contest was held in the cafeteria as was the eating contest. The fastest pie eater was dubbed the winner.

The most popular of the contests was the pie throwing contest. The winners of the contest got to throw a pie at either Mr. Ross or Darren Rogers in Friday's pep assembly. The winner for first lunch was Joe Ben-ami and the winner for second lunch was Mark Litman. Climaxing Spirit Week was a pep assembly in which Mr. Ross got creamed with a whip cream pie. Thus Spirit Week ended on a high note with students looking to next year's competition.

HALLOWEEN

This year Agoura students celebrated Halloween on the twenty-ninth of October. Students not only dressed up in the traditional costumes of the season such as ghosts, ghouls, witches and goblins, but also famous monsters and rock stars. Even some of the teachers got into the act and became Sonny and Cher for a day, or school cheerleaders. Halloween seems to raise a lot of spirits in Agoura students.

Along with the familiar old cheers and spellouts Agoura students got something a little different in a cheerleader. Our principal Mr. Bob Ross became the unofficial head Yell King, and although he didn't wear a uniform, he certainly led the students to some rousing spellouts.

In addition, this year there were special assemblies, such as the Spirit Week assembly, in which there was a pie throwing contest, and the nutrition rallies which took place near the Spirit Bell. The marching band and drill team helped to make this year's assemblies more lively, and the tall flags and banners also did some routines this year.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

This year's Fall drama Production was Agoura's version of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." This Shakespearean comedy was highlighted by original lines inserted by the cast throughout the play.

The play was performed in the G Building and featured a completely original student made set. Narrated by Puck, the assistant fairy, it told the story of four young lovers in the woods, accompanied by fairies. At times actors would venture into the audience to talk or dance.

This production featured some of the "regulars" of past plays, as well as many new faces which further enhaced the beauty of this fantasy.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Music filled the G-building on December 15 as the Agoura High orchestra, along with the Company of Song, Concert Choir, and Madrigal Singers, assembled to present their interpretation of Christmas through music. Under the fine direction of Mr. Alan Kay and Mr. Del Weeks the groups presented various Christmas songs and medleys to their audience.

For the fourth successive year, Agoura held activity days once a month. Students had the choice of attending large variety of clubs, which ranged from the Auto Club to the very popular Ski Club. Class officers and their classmates utilized this time to hold Steering Committee meetings in which the year's activities were planned. Other students chose to participate in the various sports, such as basketball, volleyball, tennis, swimming and paddleball. The library was also open at this time for students who wanted to study. Many students simply enjoyed sitting on the lawn or in the cafeteria area.

SQUARE DANCING

Once again this year, the square dancing unit took place during P.E. classes. The entire week before Christmas Vacation, all the P.E. classes met in the gym to learn the basic few steps, such as promenade your partner and do-si-do. Then, teachers showed students how to do the old familiar dances like "Oh Johnny Oh" and the "Virginia Reel." Mr. Greminger's contemporary dance class taught students some new dances, like "King of the Road." In addition, students danced to "The Bunny Hop" and "The Hustle."

As in past years, students and teachers found that square dancing did indeed invoke a holiday spirit.

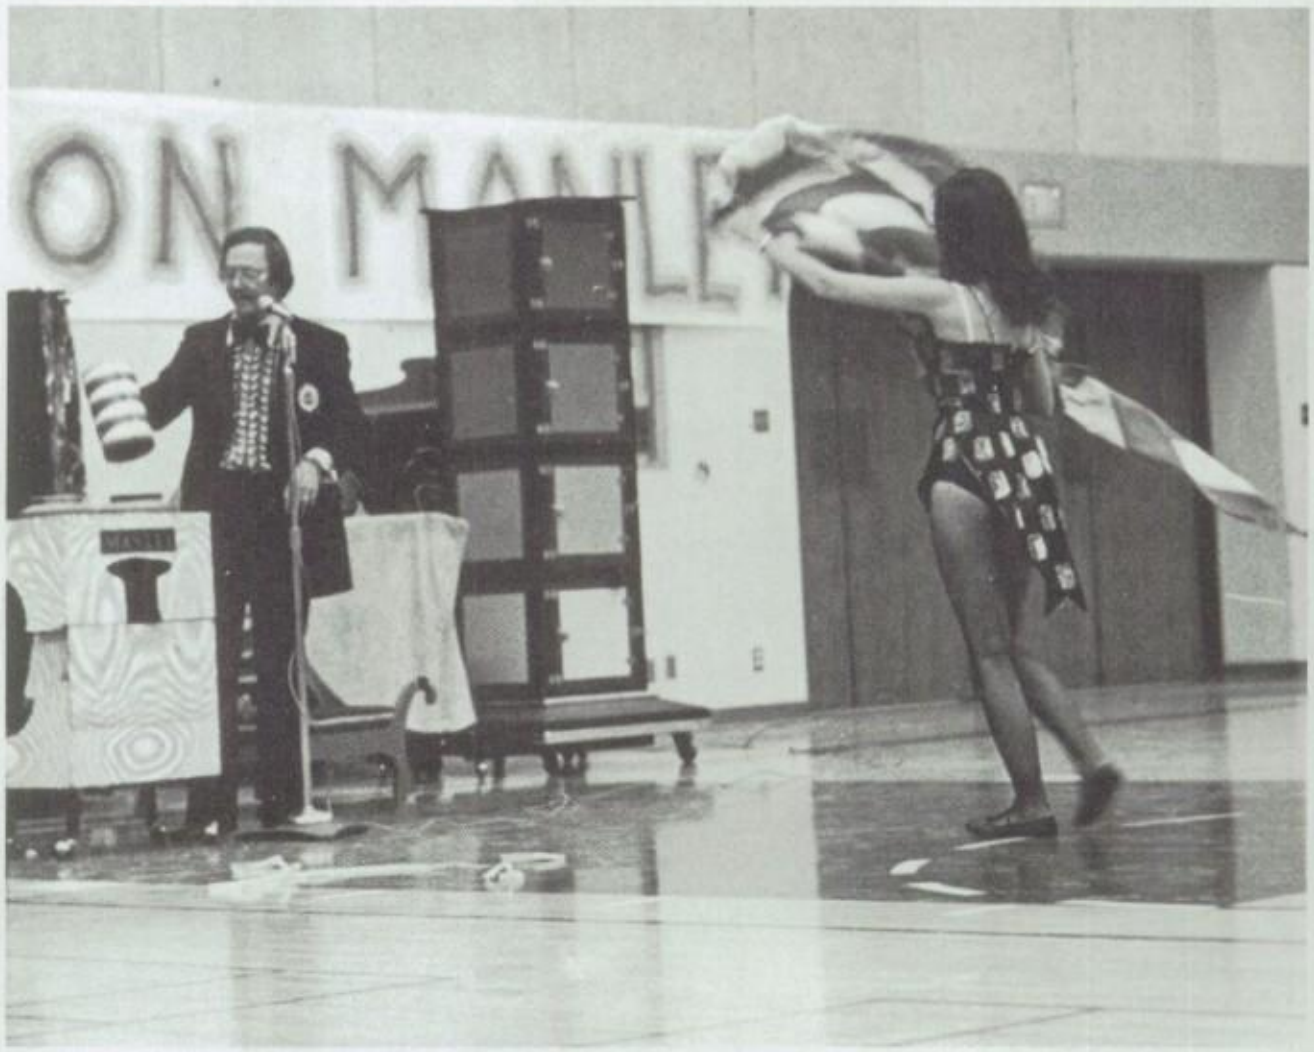
DON MANLEY



Agoura was thrilled by the tricks and stunts of the Great Don Manley and his assistant. The ''magnificent'' Manley transformed the gym into a true magic show as he made student Leslie Lauman float in thin air, and even remove Tina Kiffe's middle.

When Manley placed Dave Bold's head in the guillotine and released the blade, nary a hair was touched, and he also made the famed 'Ooh Ah' bird disappear before our very eyes.

All these complicated tricks were performed without the use of mirrors, all of which made this show a memorable experience for Agoura students.

ABOVE RIGHT: Manley shows students his bicentennial trick.
BELOW: Manley cuts the Charger emblem out of a single piece of paper.

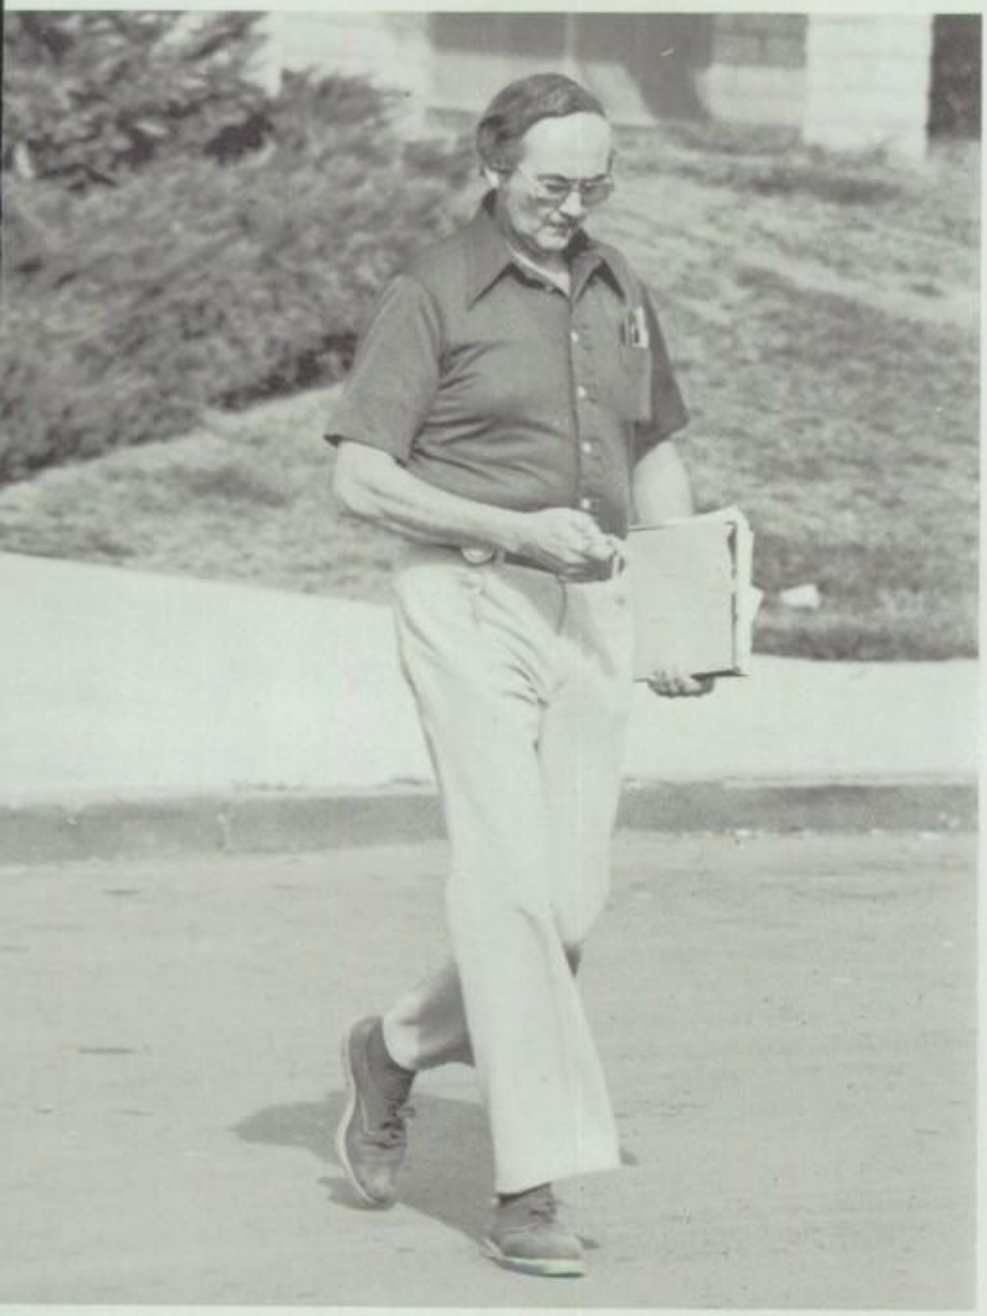
DRIVER TRAINING



An activity in which nearly all students participate is Driver Training. It is held before and after school on weekdays and on Saturdays, twice a day. In addition, there are nine summer sessions for students to take. There are four cars, donated by car companies, and after the student takes Driver Education and/or is fifteen and a half, he can take the course.

DANCE CONCERT

Alice in Wonderland, Persian dances, and belly dancing were on the ticket for this year's dance concert, "Standing Room Only." With help from Mrs. Schmidt, students from dance classes put on an entire show for the community, with a wide variety of dances ranging from the Far East to Cyclotron, a dance from the future.

In addition to the dances made up by individual students, there were two special numbers. The first, called Impromptu, was done only by the beginning dance class.

The grand finale was choreographed with the help of Mrs. Schmidt and featured many of the dancers. The show was creative and drew quite a crowd.

LIBRARY SYSTEM

After many thousands of dollars were lost because of stolen books, the school installed a book detector system in the library at a cost of 12,000 dollars. Although the installation was delayed by several months, it was finally installed in February.

The system consists of an elaborate electronic field, approximately three by five feet, which detects the small metal strips placed in the book. Money saved through use of the system will be used to buy new books, instead of constantly replacing old volumes.

TOP LEFT: Lisa Zerr exits without tripping the alarm.

SENIOR STUNTS

Under the guise of an English assignment, seniors in Sally Moore's English classes made a return to childhood innocence and spent lunchtime on February 18 playing hopscotch and jumprope. The classes were studying people in society in a unit called "initiation," and they felt that studying the reactions of passing students would help them in their study. The students found that although there were some remarks about the "little kids" - on the whole most students stopped to watch. Some were even induced to participate. Teacher Sally Moore, participant and director of the whole affair, said that the reason that people grew up was because they got too tired to play. It seemed so, because after only fifty minutes of these childhood games, everyone found they could do no more.

This year the Mardi Gras was very tiring for some people. In addition to the traditional booths such as the Marriage booth and sponge throwing, a Marathon Dance was planned in which a couple could participate for the small price of ten dollars. Just in case there was a person without a date, a dating service was also provided. The money made from the dance went toward school improvements.

Although the Mardi Gras began officially at eight o'clock, the dance itself began at six.

OKLAHOMA

Ado Annie likes Curley and Curley likes her. The only problem is that each one doesn't want the other to know. So they go out with other people. In the end they marry and live happily ever after, but in the meantime, the audience is kept in stitches or tears.

The Spring drama production, "Oklahoma," required many hours of hard work on the parts of both the cast and the tech theater workers. The cast began rehearsing in February for the opening in May. Dances were choreographed by Mrs. Schmidt. The play was one of the best at Agoura, and spectators were delighted at the talent of the groups involved.

TALENT SHOW

The super-creative team of Curt Anderson and Nathan Truman were the emcees of this year's talent show, held during the Spring semester. Tryouts were held during the last two weeks in February, and the selection committee had a hard time choosing between all the great acts.

Some of the acts that made the show were Bergstrom and Skopp, a guitar and singing group, Shaugn and Chris Hamman in a dance number and Doug Scherer playing the guitar. In addition, Robert Reiss did a humorous speech on children. The talent show has always been a popular event and this year was no exception. . .

MARCHING BAND SPECIAL

The fame of the Charger Marching Band has spread far and wide. This year, twenty-two upperclassmen in the band were on national television, on the John Denver-Carpenters Special. Denver and the Carpenters had been in marching bands in their respective high schools, and wanted to televise a segment with a band on their show. An NBC official who lives in the Las Virgenes district heard about the band and asked Mr. Alan Kay if the band would perform. The show was filmed in November and the band members spent an entire day taping the show, and the fruits of victory were reaped when the show was aired on December 7th.

Decorated in blue and silver, the Proud Bird was once again the setting for the Agoura Senior Prom. As the sharply dressed seniors arrived, the melodic tune of the theme from "Mahogony" permeated the air. This special evening found within itself five lovely girls presiding over the festivities. The crowning of Karen Johnson as the 1977 Prom Queen brought the evening to its climax. Reigning with Karen were Liz Curry, Lorraine Hull, Debbie Jensen and Tina Kiffe.

Agoura High, a memory
ok what a memory
it was this year of
in my second year of High school AND my 2nd different High school. I sure made alot of Good best friends AND one of the ones was Sue. There were alot of boys that I liked and the year of 10th Grade and the first one was Craig Rogers he was a really sweet and cute guy but at the time I still liked J.P ANdrew
AND I couldn't get over him. he's a really sweet and cute Blonde head
I loved and always will,
I'll never forget
J.P.

ANother one of my Dreams was Ray Hamel. He was super Cute but
AND shy like me
he's seemed to change; wish thought the years. Boy, with I could have got together and shy, him he was so cute and
I tried so hard to talk to Ray
AND mad I spent a fool of myself every time I went to talk to him i always said "what are you doing for weekend or what did you do last week". Boy what a fool me!

There was one guy though out the year
that i used to think OP and we used to sweat
Call him Gray because we Shirt didn't know know his name but it out at the end of the
His name was Dade naugle ne was another cute guy. But of course i never got to the well thats what happens
oh well! I get my hopes all the time ever up and nothing remembe
true, I'll Always sweat shirt.
that Gray sweat shirt. I wish i could I have gotten to know him.
oh well.

Each year, no matter how we try, there is always something we leave out; some activity, some occasion that was important to you. We dedicate these two pages to you to fill in any way you wish. You can use them for signatures and pictures of VIP's in your life; for your own sketches or creative work, or perhaps for your graduation or prom pictures. Whatever you do, enjoy yourself with these pages; They will be very uniquely yours!

another guy I liked through the last semister AND dr. ed class was Barry conse, I met him on the C.B. He's a super sweet and super cute guy. He reminds me of J.P. Barry what a guy He just likes to Golf sweet AND I just can't get over him. He was on the team and this year, I really liked him alot but never told anyone.

I wish we could have gotten together but I guess I'm hopeless.

FOOTBALL

For the third straight year the CIF championship evaded the Chargers as the fell 29-26 to San Dimas in the CIF Quarter-Finals. Agoura dominated the game and the scoreboard by jumping out to a quick 20 point lead in the first quarter. San Dimas, however, came back quickly and caught the Chargers a few minutes before half-time. Agoura went ahead on a field goal 26-23 before the intermission. The second half saw only one score, but it was enough as San Dimas won the game by three points. The earlier CIF games saw Agoura dominate both Paraclete; 42-8, and Verbum Dei; 27-8 in easy wins.

After a slow start, the Agoura Varsity football team finished in a tie for second place in the Frontier league. Agoura ended the year with a 3-2 league record and a 8-4 overall season mark. The season began with three easy Charger wins in the pre-season before a final minute touchdown by Thousand Oaks toppled the Chargers 22-20. League play also opened on a high note with a 42-0 trouncing of Nordhoff before consecutive losses to both Channel Islands and Rio Mesa which dropped the Chargers in league standings. Agoura salvaged the season with easy wins in their two remaining games. The outstanding performer on the team was once again Darren Rogers.

Although hampered by injuries, the junior varsity football team managed to take second place in the Frontier League. During the season the team lost five starters to injuries, yet finished with an overall record of 6-3 and a 4-1 record in league.

Some outstanding players were halfback Scott Meehan who gained over 1,000 yards and quarterback Don Osborn who ran the Chargers wishbone offense. Although Derek Foglesong missed the last three games because of a hip injury, he did an outstanding job as Fullback.

According to coach John Goodes, the team did "very-well offensively and defensively, and probably would have been undefeated had it not been for the numerous injuries."

The Freshman team had a solid season this year finishing with an overall record of 5-3 and a second place in the Frontier league.

"The offense and the defense played outstanding throughout the year," according to head coach Bill Belcher.

The biggest disappointment for the team came in the last game, when they lost 6-0 to Calabasas after having defeated the Coyotes earlier in the season.

The outstanding player on the team was Halfback Paul Moran, who rushed for over 970 yards.

WATER POLO

Experience and dedication were the major problems faced by this year's varsity water polo team. Despite the efforts of Chris Hensley and Ken Brown, they managed only a 2-11 record in the Mar Monte league.

There were bright spots, however. Hensley, a senior, was named to the All-League first team, and classmate Ken Brown to the second team. Near the end of the season, against highly rated Thousand Oaks, the Chargers rolled to a quick 4-0 lead. Then, in the latter part of the game, the short handed squad lost their strength and the game, 15-6.

Due to the success of the Soph-Frosh team, coach Rick Rezinas has bright hopes for the future.

WATER POLO

After a spectacular pre-season in which they compiled a 6-3 record, the soph-frosh water polo team secured second place in the Mar Monte league. However, after leaving the Oxnard, Simi, and Nordhoff teams in their wake, they lost to Thousand Oaks and Newbury Park, traditionally the league powerhouses. This enabled them to finish with a 3-2 league record. The all-round effort was lead offensively by Pat Worth, while Karl Schott paced the defense.

CROSS COUNTRY

After two disappointing season opening losses to Thousand Oaks and Newbury Park, the varsity runners started their league meets by rolling over Nordhoff and Channel Islands. The next week, they came up even against Rio Mesa, but no ties are allowed in cross-country, and they lost the tie breaker, and probably their only chance for second place. The team finished the season by losing a close match to Santa Paula, and winning decisively over Santa Clara. Junior veteran Jon Stormo shattered a course record on his way to his second consecutive league title at Santa Clara. At the CIF Prelims, he took a sixth place, missing his chance for finals by some two seconds. Leading the young team along with Stormo were Senior Kevin.

CROSS COUNTRY

Despite the fact that the number one freshman, Kevin Dulyea, ran varsity, the junior varsity and soph-frosh teams both remained unbeaten. Not only did they bury regular and non-league opponents in dual meets, but they managed to take first place in invitationals at Dos Pueblos High School and Mount San Antonio College. The latter of the two is regarded as one of the main cross country events in California, so the victory there seemed to indicate that the Charger runners were among the best in the State. The two teams, often switching members as a matter of strategy, were led by Walt Kelly, Bill Schauerman, Evan Hackett, Todd Anderson, and Paul Kouri.

TENNIS

With an experienced squad made up of all returning players, the varsity tennis team came in strong second with an overall record of 10-3. There were many strong players, and this year's dominating player, Tracy Reagan, performed beautifully, aiding the girls' tennis team with a 13-0 overall record. Reagan was voted number one in All-League competition, and proceeded to CIF where she made a fine showing.

Some other well-rounded players were Ellen George, who had a record of 7-4, and Karen Johnson.

Another of the team's strongest assets was its compatibility and the hard-working spirit of the girls. One example of this was the varsity doubles team composed of Patti Wilkie and Nicole Ritmire, which had a

The junior varsity team also had an impressive season, finishing in first place with a 10-1 record overall. Led by the strong performances of Kristy Roberts and Carin Vermeer, the team showed a lot of potential and skill and gained some much needed experience for next year.

"I feel that the team did better at the end of the season, and thus didn't have the time to let our true potential show through."

VOLLEYBALL

Skill and determination overcame newness and inexperience and brought the Agoura girls' volleyball team to a third place in the Frontier League. Winding up with a 5-3 record overall, coach Sue Hibbard remarked, "The team did a lot better than I had expected as we had only three returning varsity players. I moved Tammy Rogers, Julie Villescas, and Teresa Shrout up from JV and they performed beautifully." Outstanding offensive players included Chris Hedene, Nancy Franklin, and Cindy Reheis. Outstanding defensive players were Teresa Shrout and Katie Malley. Speaking favorably of the team, Coach HIbbard added, "We may have only been in third place but we certainly weren't a third rate team. We went through a lot of hard work and generated a lot of enthusiasm, and many of the games could've gone either way."

Strong players on defense were Geri Gillette and Jackie Ritmire. Speaking of the JV team, Mrs. Hibbard said, "This year's team had a lot of energy and really came on strong. In fact, I'm very proud of both teams' performances."

After coming from behind to earn a spot in the C.I.F. playoffs, the varsity cagers learned they were to be matched against highly rated San Marino. Led offensively by Brett Sandy and Jim Ruddy, the Chargers rolled up a 14-9 lead by the end of the first quarter. Then despite the outstanding defensive efforts of Ron McIntyre and Fraser Campbell, the tables turned drastically. During the second quarter they were outscored 2-1, and ended up trailing 27-23 at the half. San Marino managed to widen the gap even further during the fast-moving, high scoring third quarter, after which Agoura was trailing 54-37. Midway through the final period, the Chargers' comeback attempt was cut short, and the game was lost, 71-53.

BASKETBALL

Despite twelve consecutive losses in pre-league competition, the varsity basketball team was able to rebound during league play, and finish the season with an overall 6-17 record, taking third in league. The first win of the year came against Santa Clara, where the Chargers won by a close score of 45-43 in the league opener. According to coach Bob Sutton the most satisfying win was against Rio Mesa: the Chargers came from 24 points behind the Spartans with only twelve minutes left to play and won the game 56-55. One of the most exciting games was played against Nordhoff. The teams battled into five overtimes, with the Chargers finally winning 62-60.

*C.I.F. Playoff

This year's team, according to Sutton, was "very unselfish," working "very hard as a team." The leading scorer was Bret Sandy, with Jim Ruddy and junior Ron McIntyre the strongest rebounders. Mike Taylor and Fraser Campbell performed equally as well in running the ball club and being playmakers. Coach Sutton was "really pleased" with the team, using all of the nine players in competition; "they all, in their own way, contributed something of value to the team." Sutton further noted that Jack Clarke and Dan Frank were good in defense and rebounding, while Brian Reuter and Bob Mona maintained "steady play in defense and had good games offensively."

overall season record were "excellent for this team." Despite the fact that the Charger J.V. squad averaged only 5'11" in height, the players played with "a lot of enthusiasm; like they were 6'5"," and "hustled like crazy." Although Rio Mesa was dubbed the strongest in league, the Chargers defeated them 53 to 49. The cagers also beat Thousand Oaks 74-68, in spite of the fact that T.O. took first in their own league. Due to their height, the Chargers played a "five-guard offense" with Steve Monis the leading scorer, Bruce Sapp, Charles Perkins, Bob Rous, and Eric Vos as starters, and Robin Gabriel as alternate. LaBelle "never enjoyed coaching a team more than them in ten years of coaching; they were super to be around."

First year coach Lee Shagin brought the sophomore basketball team to a 4-17 overall record, finishing fourth in league competition. The soph cagers opened their season with a win over Calabasas 46-28. A major competition for the Chargers, who suffered from a lack of height, was their competition with 3A and 4A schools. The squad was also slowed by injuries and illness throughout the season. In spite of ankle injuries Mike Mesko did a fine job as leading scorer with Steve Manning, Jon Anderson, Dean Carr and Matt Eldredge as starters.

Overall Shagin felt that this year's sophomore team worked hard and was a "smart bunch - a really intelligent group. They were able to understand everything they were coached."

According to Coach Tom Rebd, this year's freshman basketball squad was one of the best ever at Agoura. This was evidenced in the team's 14-5 record; even though many of the games were played against Sophomores and Juniors.

The fine playing was due to a much better-than-average starting squad, consisting of Paul Moran, Scott Ratzan, Jim Anderson, Steve Lazarus and Evan Studley. Moran was by far the best scorer, averaging eighteen points a game, while Lazarus had the most assists. Scott Ratzan, Moran, and Lazarus compiled a mighty defensive unit, with Evan Studley, Jim Anderson and Ratzan grabbing most of the rebounds. Additionally, the team was helped greatly by Rick Pitts and Lee Salin. Rebd feels that the starting team has great potential to be even better than they are now.

An El Monte goal in the last minute of the second overtime, eliminated Agoura, 1-0, from the C.I.F. championship and spoiled an otherwise strong showing by the Chargers. Up to that point the Chargers had dominated play and appeared headed for a win and an advance to the second round. The game was played at a very fast pace throughout, with the action moving from one end of the field to the other. Agoura goalie Mark Gilmore made a number of outstanding saves throughout the game. Offensively the Chargers were led by leading scorer Richard Berfield and J.V. M.V.P. Brett Armstrong. Agoura's last minute comeback appeared successful at first when headed in a Craig Wells center. However, the referee disallowed the goal, claiming that ball was punched into the goal. With that decision the time ran out.

For the second time in three years the varsity soccer team finished second in its league and entered post season CIF playoffs. Boasting a 7-2-4 league record, (9-3-4 overall), the Chargers clinched a CIF playoff spot on the last day of the season when they managed a 1-1 tie against Thousand Oaks. The highlight of the year, however, came earlier when the team played defending CIF champion Santa Barbara to a 1-1 tie. In possibly the most exciting game ever at Agoura, the Chargers actually led 1-0 at the half. The team was led by seniors Keith Green, Craig Wells, Nathan Crair, Mark Carlson, and newcomers Tom Brenner, Steve Montgomery, and Steve Eckman. Other outstanding performers were juniors Richard Berfield, Mark McGuire, Chris Reeder, Mark Gilmore, and Brian Coudreau. The Chargers finished the season on an upnote going undefeated in their last nine league games.

An exciting 1-0 victory over Santa Barbara, and a first-ever soccer league championship were just two of the highlights of the J.V. soccer teams' undefeated season. Led by offensive standouts Brett Armstrong, Roger Petrusson, and Walter Kelley, and defensive players Dave Friedman, Mike Williams, and Bill Fortney, the team recorded a record of ten shutouts and only permitted a total of four goals throughout the entire season. The league season began with a disappointing tie against Calabasas but was then followed by five straight wins which firmly entrenched the Chargers into first place.

Although the varsity wrestling team was small in number this year, forcing them to forfeit, the grapplers were able to finish with a strong winning record of 9-6, finishing third in league. Four wrestlers finished second place in league individually: Brian Hittesman, 98 pounds; Chris Raden, 123 pounds; Scott Suhr, 130 pounds; and George Gurney at 157 pounds. These grapplers proved to be the strongest and most consistent wrestlers. The team was coached by Frank Greminger and Steve Smith. Smith call their most impressive win against Alemany, where they placed second of eight teams in that tournament. Says Smith, "I like all of my wins," and because of excellence in individual performances he, "felt good even when we lost."

WRESTLING

Under the guidance of coaches Steve Smith and Frank Greminger, Agoura's junior grapplers wrestled to a much better finish than first expected. The short-handed squad compiled a 2-4 league record, placing fourth in the Frontier league.

Steve Shatz, Chris Gagnon, and Paul Santoro were among the team leaders. Schatz and Cagnon were the most consistent performers, winning most of their matches. Santoro made his fame by winning first place at the Royal High Tourney in the 112 pound division.

According to Greminger, the main problem with wrestling is that there is no program on the junior high level. The competition, he says, has an advantage in that many of their wrestlers have been in the sport since the seventh grade.

The leading scorer for the team was Tracy Regan while the highest number of rebounds were grabbed by Nancy Franklin and Pam Muir. Defensive honors were shared by the whole team as Agoura was rated number one in defense for the entire league for the second time.

Both coaches were proud of the teams' performance and the effort and time each girl put in. The coaches stressed team unity above individual players and felt everyone contributed 100% to each game. Mr. Pesetski added that it "was a pleasure to work with the girls."

The junior varsity team had another winning season even though the team consisted of all new members. The team possessed a lot of talent and the girls really knew what they were doing as they spent a lot of time learning basics and play patterns which gave them a certain edge over their opponents. Outstanding players on both offense and defense were Betty Brust, Karen Krug and Lynn Zale.

The Agoura Varsity Swim team had an excellent year. The young team started the season weak but ended strongly with the team coming in fourth in the league. "Our Swim team is in a league within a league," explained Coach Rezinas. Thousand Oaks, Oxnard and Newbury Park are in their own league. "These teams are in the wrong league. They are very tough?" stated Coach Rezinas. The teams left including Agoura form the second league. Agoura is first among their league. With only Thousand Oaks, Newbury Park, and Oxnard ahead. The team is led by Don Underwood, a junior.

The team only came up against two other Soph-Frosh teams Thousand Oaks and Oxnard, but in all other meets the swimmers competed against the higher levels as there were no other Soph-Frosh teams. Thus, the team gained a lot of much needed experience. This strong team will add a lot of good swimmers to the Varsity of next year.

Although the Agoura varsity baseball team got off to a slow pre-season start, under the leadership of pitchers Bob Mona and Mark Nowlin coach Fred Williams predicted that the team "would at least get to the play-offs." The team, made up of mostly returning seniors, won only one of its pre-season contests, but Williams was quick to note that the pre-season was no indication of things to come. He explained that with sophomore Mona and senior Nowlin in the two pitching positions the team couldn't go wrong. The rest of the team echoed his thoughts, one player stating that he thought the Chargers had at least an even chance of doing at least as well as they did last year in C.I.F., if not better.

Along with the host of returning seniors returning to play this year Agoura was joined by two players who transferred into the Agoura area from other schools. The two were senior centerfielder Paul Donadio, who came to Agoura wit a .350 batting average, and junior Steve Monis, who played varsity baseball as a sophomore. The rest of the infield was composed of Steve Hagy at the catchers position, Mark Newlun or Kevin Hyman at first, Monis at second, Jeff Hill at third, and shortstop Bret Sandy. In the outfield were a selection of players including Paul Savoldelli, Paul Donadio, Dave Kramer, Mark Ornstein and sometimes Nowlin when he wasn't pitching.

BASEBALL

Although at the beginning of the season coach John Goodes had "no idea" of how his Junior Varsity baseball team was going to end up at the end of the season, indicators pointed to a favorable year. Goodes coached the same group last year as freshmen and led them to an undefeated overall record. And, although the team lost a few of its preseason games, Goodes expected them to come aroung at the start of league competition. "All the other teams have played baseball over the summer and my kids haven't,". was how Goodes expressed his frustration over getting too little pre-season "hustle" out of the team. But he re-iterated that he felt that overall the am had the potential to do quite well.

First year coach Art Kinberg was optimistic in discussing his freshman baseball club at the beginning of the league season. He stated that he saw a "lot of potential" in his team and continued to predict that they would be "right in there for league." Kinberg said that he used the pre-season games as "practice games" for his kids who he thought were good but "a little inexperienced at playing like a team." He went on to state that they all were quite good individual players. And, although he had a tough act to follow with last year's freshman team going undefeated and taking the top spot in the Frontier league, Kinberg seemed sure that both first year players and first year coach would rise to the occasion.

Although the track team was troubled by a difficult pre-season schedule, with an early loss to Newbury Park, the team had a good season. Coach Belcher stated that the team could conceivably beat their major competition, Channel Islands, and go on to C.I.F.

The team's major problem as stated by Coach Belcher was lack of depth. Although there were good men in almost every event, there was a great difference between the top man, and the rest in that event.

Leading the team were several returning C.I.F. competitors, as well as some new faces from the soph-frosh team. Once again, leading the milers and two milers was junior Jon Stormo. Evan Hackett was an excellent middle distance runner, participating in the 440 and 880. Sprinters were Chuck Gero and Jon Stormo led the high jumpers on the team, and in the pole vault we had Mike Weller, a returning C.I.F. competitor.

With the apparent lack of depth in the varsity squad, and the tough competition from both Newbury Park and Channel Islands, it seemed at the beginning of the season that the team wouldn't do too well; but as Coach Belcher stated prior to the season, "We feel we can do very well inour own league;" this, the team proved to everyone.

TRACK

This year's frosh-soph track team may have been one of the best ever, because according to Coach Belcher, "there is a great bunch of athletes this year." Although the team was troubled by inexperience and a difficult schedule, they overcame these problems early in the season and went on to a fine finish. There were several excellent runners on the team. In sprints, Scott Ratzan was outstanding, taking more than his share of first and second places in the 220, 50 and 100 yard dashes. The best middle distance runner was Scott Hunter, who did particularly well in the 440 and 880. Early in the season, Coach Belcher knew the team faced a long rigorous schedule, but they overcame that as well as most of their othe problems, ending the season satisfactorily.

TENNIS

This year as in past years the tennis team had a very successful season. The team was lucky to have return four very promising players in number one and all league champion David Seigler, Beth Seigler, Josh Zarrow, and Paul Steele. Beth Seigler is the only girl on the team, but held her number two spot very well. The varsity is hoping for a seat in the C.I.F. playoffs where last year they placed number two after losing in the finals. Coach Trahan made it clear that he had high hopes of winning the Frontier League as they have in past years. The Junior Varsity team also did very well this season.

Follwing last year's outstanding first place league standings under a 16-2 record, the fifth place C.I.F. team once again were able to finish strongly in the Frontier league, dominating league play. According to Christianson, the toughest match was against San Marcos, the only team to beat the Chargers last year.

After an exciting practice season of 2-1, the girls' track team went on to a very successful finish.

Coach Baker was surprised but happy over the success of the inexperienced team as it was made up mainly of freshmen. "This will be a good building team and should make it to C.I.F. in the years to come."

The team was very well-balanced as there was at least one good person in every event. Ms. Baker assessed this and the hard-working spirit of the girls to be the main reasons for their wins this year.

The main runners for the squad were sprinter Beth Reed, quarter-miler Iris Tone, half-miler Wendy Faner and the mile runner Cindy Stevens. Late-comer Cindy Reheis also added much to the strength of the team.

Coach Baker added that junior Sandy Tibbets was one of the better hurdlers she'd seen in a long time. Coach Baker was pleased with the overall attitude of the girls and summed it all up with "What can I say? They were wonderful."

"It was a great experience. I love running and I really liked the team."

Strong and well-balanced are the words which described the girls' gymnastics team this year. The varsity made up of Colleen Conroy, Karen Argue, Deanne McLaughlin, Lisa Moore, Suzi Fornhoff, Leslie Johnson, and Tori Lawler competed in class 2 - an intermediate - advanced level. The girls showed strength in every area; parallel uneven bars, balance beam, vaulting horse and floor routines, a lot of helpfullness to each other as well. Coach Karbo felt that the varsity had really come along and were doing many more difficult routines than in the past. Ms. Karbo expressed pride over her team's performance but cared more about giving the girls a good experience rather than just winning.

The J.V. team also had a strong season as the team was made up of some well-rounded players. These people included Donna Schwake, Missy Triestch, Bonnie Malar, and Tammy Hellagas. Coach Karbo felt that "I feel gymnastics is a worthwhile sport but an under-rated one. I like it because you're using your whole body, you're always moving and it goes quick (and it's good for you)."

Karen Argue

"I started gymnastics for fun but then I got into competition and now it's my favorite sport. When you're doing your best, it really shows if you've improved, and if you have, it gives you a good feeling be cause you've done it by yourself. Gymnastics is a great sport because it shows both strength and grace and you must have both in order to do well."

Strong new talent, combined with the experience of several veteran swimmers, enabled the girls' swim team to finish the season with a fine record.

There were only five returning varsity members, the strongest being past C.I.F. competitor Linda Kirby. Thus, new talent was a major factor in the success of the large team. This came from such people as Tracy Rinaldi, Karen Clarke, Vanessa Tasso, and Jackie Ritmire.

Additional strength came from swimmers Donna Schwake, Karen Poley, Heather MacDonald, Cathy Schauerman, and Kristen Lundstrom. Coach Hibbard was pleased with the overall performance of the team and expressed that the team would be even stronger in the years to come due to the fact that there were only three seniors on the entire team.

The hard-working efforts of the junior varsity team was apparent by their final record which once again left them as league champs. Standouts for this year's team included Joan Savodelli, Leslie Case, and Laura Holtgrewe.

"Swimming is a great sport and much harder than most people realize. It's as grueling as track because we're swimming about 2 to 4 miles every day, 5 days a week, and we get all wet besides. But it sure helps keep you in shape."

It was nice getting to know you. It was fun having you in P.E. Have a nice summer + I hope I'll see you next year.
Love always,
Lisa Simons

As a result of many returning players and a set of brand new uniforms, the girls' softball team had a very successful season. Coach Sutton felt the girls did much better than last year as their pitching had improved and their defense had tightened up. He was also pleased with the good attitude and spirit that the girls possessed throughout the season.

Mr. Sutton was glad to see the teamwork shown by the team and believed it to be due to the many returning players. These people included Janette McChesney, Lisa Faska, Denise Osborn, Sue Lingel, Julie Villescas, Leslie Rinaldi, Patti Wilke, Terry Shrout, and Geri Gillette. The leading hitter for the squad was Sue Lingel, the main infielder was shortstop Patti Wilke and the starting pitcher was Julie Villescas.

"I think this was our best year ever. We were strong due to many returning players and our potential really came out. It was fun."

Janette "Honey" McChesney (1st base)

"I think the team was great. Everyone gave their all, which was important, as every member, even the substitutes, was an integral part of the team."

Sue Armitage (outfield)

"I enjoyed Mr. Sutton's coaching as he helped our team really get it together. Teamwork is No. 1 with us. I love softball - it's a fun sport and I'll keep going out for it."

Individuality in the student body was once again reflected by the variety of sports which were engaged in by the students outside of the regular school setting. The school officially offers twelve different sports, but the students found that a great deal of outside activities were just as interesting. Thus skateboarding, jogging, bicy-

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year was a growing one. Things changed around me and I changed. I have enjoyed my four years at Agoura and I can truly say I'm proud to have gone to Agoura.

As ASB president I have experienced success, failure, and frustration, but most of all I have tried to make a difference to the people who elected me.

A very important person to me is Mr. Les Van-Dyke, who was a great help to me. Many times I would need help, and his caring always made it easier for me. I will admire and respect him.

Another person very special to me this year was Shaughn Hamman. She always supported and gave help. She always seemed to be a source of endless enthusiasm. She is a beautiful person who has made a difference to me.

Student Council this year has been the best in a long time. We have had our problems, but I have never been involved with a group of people who have worked so hard as they did. I am truly proud of them to have such a good council.

This year there were many times that I felt like no one cared and I would take it out on my friends. I thank them for their patience with me.

Finally the people who mean the most to me is the Student Body. You are a unique group. I hope your years at Agoura mean as much to you as they did to me. I wish happiness, success, and love always to you!!!

"COMMUNICATION" has been the keynote theme of this year's student council. Many new projects have been initiated as a result of the two way communication that has been taken place on our campus. The House of Representatives and Student Council have worked hard to open the lines of communication between students, faculty and administration. I believe the result of this communication is reflected in a re-vitalized activity program that we have experienced in the past school year.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

When Jimmy Carter was elected, he had four years to get done all the things he wanted to get done. When I was elected I had one year to do what I wanted to get done. It didn't even seem as if four years would be enough. But all in all I feel I got a lot accomplished. The House of Representatives and I were instrumental in making major revisions in the school constitution. Possibly my greatest pride and joy was the united school council. Which gave every student three avenues of communication to the house and student council. The hardest job of any council member is to do something that makes a difference to someone or make a definite change for the better. I hope I have done that. In closing I would like to thank all the members of the House who worked so hard on the various projects we embarked on. I give great thanks to the other members of council who put up with me. And finally Mr. Van-Dyke who has really tried to build a fire under me to keep me going for the past two years. I wish the best of luck to all future ASB presidents, vice presidents, you'll need it!!!

My sincerest best wishes,

Dewane Brunkhardt.

It wasn't a good year. It wasn't a great year. It was the most outstanding year in the school's 12 year history of competitive speech.

Over fifty students took home a sweepstakes trophy at almost every tournament attended. There were ten debate teams that won consistently, and an enthusiastic novice team that provided not only the skill, but also the spirit for the club. It was a year where leadership from President Robert Reiss, Vice-President Keith Lewinstein, and Secretary-Treasurers Robert Miller and Sherry Studley never waned. As they say in the song - it was "a very good year."

YEARBOOK

When we began the year, we resolved to make this book one that would be dedicated to the individual. Our quest for the "individual" was a long and difficult one because we learned that everyone is individual even when their individuality means that they conform to the standards and rules of others. We tried in this book to capture the year both in terms of individual achievements and general accomplishments. We saw C.I.F. playoffs, outstanding dramatic presentations, incredible musical and athletic performances, and a lot of individual qualities in people who were not normally thought of as having many redeeming values.

If there is one thing that this year has taught us, it is that we are all human beings inside and that once we tear away the masks and fronts, we find people who are easy to relate to, and who are willing to allow others to share in their lives.

In addition to the handful of people on the yearbook staff, we found many others who were willing to help in any way they could. Foremost among these people were Jim O'Connor and Viga Hall, two non-Agoura individuals who were tolerant and helpful whenever they were needed to be.

It is to them, and the many others like them that we say Thank You, because they represent the kind of individuals that most people really are.

Rabble-rousing, intrigue, controversy - these things are all a way of life at El Escudero. Our staff's guiding philosophy over the past year has been "If we can't smoke it, drink it, love it, or spend it, forget it." The instrumental music department is one of the busiest and most successful departments on campus. The Symphonic band, Wind Ensemble, and Orchestra perform a minimum of three concerts per year, two assemblies, and festival. The Wind Ensemble composed of thirty-five outstanding wind and percussion players in the department, and receive the highest ratings at district and regional festival. The Symphonic band is the largest band the school has known. The Orchestra, in addition to regular concert appearances accompanies the drama department in the spring musical annually. In its second, the Stage band has offered an opportunity for students to study and perform all types of Jazz and Rock music. The Marching band for the fifth consecutive year competed successfully in many Southern California Band competitions. The Marching band performs at all home football games and is the only band in the area to travel with the football team to almost all away football games. The group further supports the school by forming a pep band that performs at home basketball games and assemblies.

Les Filles Chanteurs perform at the winter Christmas Assembly.

CONCERT CHOIR - is the largest vocal group on campus. It consists of a large number of students who are selected through individual auditions. Acceptance into choir is based upon the students' vocal talents and interest in the group.

COMPANY OF SONG - has had a very successful singing year. It consists of a selected number of male and female singers whose vocal talents are highlighted during their many performances. As well as performing for the school, the company of song travels throughout the community performing at many social events.

MADRIGAL SINGERS - This is their second year in existence at Agoura. Their group has ten to fifteen members who perform songs from the 15th and 16th centuries.

LES FILLES CHANTEURS - consists of about 15 girls. It helps the girls develop their voices in case they want to try out for any other musical groups. They sing at the school concerts, mostly folk and pop music. They're sponsored by the Music Department, and directed by Mr. Weeks.

Liquid Dust

The curb's crust left grit
on his suit
The bottle in the brown bag always a must
The look in his eyes eager for joy
but reflecting nothing in return
He reached his feet, stumbled and kicked a path through the dust.

I Love You

I is the easiest word to say and the most commonly used
Love is the most widely preached and the most least widely practiced
You is a hard idea to accept and the one loved the second-most
If I were said second and Love was expressed and
You were loved more than I then it would be it's
You I Love

- Cathy Fox -

Today is not the first Nor the last
Nor the best that you and I have ever known
the first never was the last never will be
and the best is yet to come.

Beach Song
Your love
is everywhere.
In the sunset and the stars
And in the sea air

I can't understand
How people can be so blind.
If only they could feel it
Within their hearts and minds.

A love that made every grain of sand
Upon the beach
Could certainly love a person
Lost and unreached.

Your love
is all around.
It's spoken in our hearts
We need not make a sound.

If only they could hear it
Then they would not fear it.
Let them hear it in us
This love is Jesus.
Let them hear it in us this love is Jesus.

Morning Bridge

One early winter morning, while walking through a meadow, I came upon a Bridge.

The morning frost glistened upon its shadowed rails.

Below was a small water passage, half running, half frozen.

While I crossed this beautiful bridge, I began to wonder.

Was it just a link from one side to the other, or was it the gateway to a new life filled with laughter and sunshine?

Towards the end I came upon an entrance.

It was a sunlit entrance, with a large green pine on the left and an even larger white tree on the right, which led me into darkness and the other side.

- Julie Villescas -

Anticipation

Waiting
To hear his voice on the phone,
Watching
The clock, sitting alone.

Restless
Trying to find something to do - Anxious
Thinking of only of you.

Curious Waiting to see,
Wondering
if he forgot about me.

Upset
It's getting so late,
Hurt
leaving me here to wait.

Surrendering
To doubts in my head, Crawling
into my bed.

Ringing
Like the sound of a chime,

Hearing his voice
What a waste of time.

A Mountain Torch

A harmless spark
so small, so tiny,
but one whose power is so deceptive.
For an absent-minded arsonist,
whose control is out of hand,
sets free his harmless spark and quickly promotes it to flame.
Like poor old General Custer,
Engulfed by Sioux arrows,
The mighty pine takes its last stand.
its soul of ashes remains.

The fresh smell of the mighty pine is present up here,
Way up high
in the heaven of nature
As we all congregate
around the roar of a campfire,
Peace has joined us
and nothing is going to destroy this.

Midnight Hour

She's too old for nursery rhymes
and baby dolls
Childhood crush have lost all meanings.
A Cinderella waiting to be transformed
Waiting for that Prince Charming

It's always midnight for her Sitting among pumpkins and mice.
With a foot too big to fit any shoe.
She works and waits.

"Freedom" by Wendy Tsao

Reach out always for the brightest light
Look beyond the goal in sight
Don't ever let your dreams slip by.
For you're nothing, if your hopes die.

Move through life with acquired grace
Let nothing you feel go to waste.
Keep forever the joy, the pain
The knowledge, the truth, the lies-retain.

Grasp each new experience
See the old in a different sense.
Strive for the moment-you'll know if it's true
When even time shall stand still for you.

The Blessing

I often
see the beauty
hear the gentle touch of love . . .

and that's how I know that

Sometime I must have overlooked my shadow
felt the peace,
not just seen the dove.
I often
follow childhood touch the stars
dream the day, dream the night . . .

and that's how I know that

Sometime I must have lived a blessing,
shared the moon's goodbye
with the morning light.

- Lisa Spencer -

What at last
The flower bloomed
I kissed it once
Then ran away,
Hoping
To return again someday.
Only to find it
Snatched from my mind
By the bright, green bud
Neighboring that old Withered flower.

SOARING

Everything has to be perfect:
the wind,
the upbeat,
and the kite.
Then running down the hill
the kite lifts you up with a strong burst of power.
Now you're soaring over the land,
looking down
on everything
just the kite and you;
free as a bird against the sky,
until you land on the ground
and the end of your freedom.

- Craig Nelson -

MORNING GLORY

The tired old woman,
With gnarled fingers,
Plants her flower garden with Motherly love.
While in the field
Across the dusty road,
A young blonde girl
Picks the wild flowers
Of purple and gold
With foolish abandon.

Seasons pass with innocence
refusing to press upon us pain.
But even as gold leaves drift down,
the sky drops glittered rain.

Even as we laugh and sing,
another day slips by.
Grasping on does not help.
the inner self, it lies.

When we look back, years from now
and see our hopes have died.
We can only touch our smiling children.
Look away and sigh.

. . . and we all dance together

i live in my fantasies
untouched by reality
remembering thoughts of yesterday and dreaming dreams of tomorrow

i live in my fantasies
unhurt by the ruthless or painful happenings
sharing secrets with myself

i live in my fantasies
chasing rainbows
being caught by a cloud touched by a sunbeam

i live in my fantasies
animals drink clear water
the one i love loves me
black, brown, and yellow are beautiful

i live in my fantasies
God is the light
if we choose, our path is lit
and we all dance together.

Ode to a Doodle

Oh, doodle, doodle, on this sheet,
Why can't I make you much more neat?
And then I could do something smart -
I'd show you as a work of art!
Then we could be both rich and famous
Me and my dodle, no one could tame us.
We'd travel near and travel far,
And at the world we'd har-har-har!
But you are just a messy doodle,
Looking like a tangled noodle.
Bored am I in this Spanish class.,
Boy, am I glad this hour is passed!

Steve

Last night
in the midst of boogey movement
and smokey darkness
you confidently took my hand and led me
To a secluded bench
To talk
or so I thought Scared and tense,
Yet intrigued and curious,
I listened and responded;
Slowly growing more confident,
I did not give in to everything.
But just the same
I let you hold me
and try to mold me into your image
Somehow, deep within My fairy tale side battled with
my skeptic realism.
There in the dimly-lit
circus atmosphere.
I let you lead me
and knew I wanted
to follow
but only so far only so long before
I needed to be me.
- Sally Moore -

Growing

Sometime, before, there had been another me; it seems so long ago
like a book, half-remembered.
Today I've been divided into then and now.
I thrive on change, as if I were the wind
But sometimes it frightens me that today will eventually be then.

Hazel

Yes I see it clearly now
Hazy though it comes in Visions of a boy just mine all mine

There you are just standing there
You don't move you're still
You stand and smile

Your eyes are like sapphires
And you smile a beam of sunlight
Your body explodes in bulges and bursts

As you move closer I can feel strange excitement
I can feel the strength of your arms
And the pressure of your body

It's strange feeling
A happy moment
The pleasure of my entire life
But the haze of it's gone now

And I awake ony to find
Me and myself alone in bed

Looking Back

Friday nights long ago
I too
sat myself in front of the mirror hoping for a favorable male reaction tonight
it is my little sister who checks to see if her eye shadow clashes with her freshly pressed blouse
as I
decked in a soft satin shirt
glance to see if I remembered to run a brush through my hair anticipating little reaction: postmarked postdated postadolescent.

Love one another, but make not a bond of love:

Let it rather be a moving sea between the shores of your souls.

Fill each others cup but drink not from one cup.

Give one another of your bread but eat not from the same loaf.

Sing and dance together and be joyous, but let each one of you be alone,

Even as the strings of a lute are alone though they quiver with the same music.

Well - I guess this is it! We've finally reached the point in our lives when we have to decide which path we're going to take. No matter which way each of us go I'm sure we'll be successful. This class of 1977 is one that I feel will be remembered for years to come. The talent that has come out of this class is superb. From Dramatics to sports - we seem to cover all.

The Friendships we've encountered during our stay at Agoura will pass as we do, but the memories will always be there.

The success of our class as a whole is due to the overall involvement of the students as well as the senior class advisors, who at this time I'd like to thank for all they've done for us. Stefanie Graham was as dedicated to our class as one can be. Jim Christianson and Bill Harms are also to be commended for their support.

There is one special person in this school that always seems to come through. Whenever I was in trouble or down I knew I could count on him for an encouraging word. I thank you Mr. Les VanDyke for all you've done for me and most of all the class of '77. You're the best!

To you class of 1977 I leave these words of wit; Hey Ladee, ladee, ladee

Hey Ladee, ladee, lo
Hey Ladee, ladee, ladee
Hey Ladee, ladee, lo
I worked with a senior class
Hey ladee, ladee, lo
They tried hard and were a gas
Hey ladee, ladee, lo.

Keep your head high in all you do, for only then will you be a success.

Where would you go with a free round-trip ticket to any place.

TOP LEFT: Kathy Krusen says "If I had a round trip ticket I would go to the Middle East and Egypt, so I could get a first hand view of customs and methods of Folk and Belly Dancing."
BOTTOM LEFT: Liz Grossman says Japan: "The lives are simple, and I admire their unity with nature. Also their serenity."
BOTTOM RIGHT: Amy Renger says "Jamicia, but first I'd just like to go all over the U.S. especially the deep south, because it would be fun."

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where are you going to, do you know?

Do you get what you're hopin' for? When you look behind you there's no open door. What are you hoping for, do you know? Once we were standing still in time, chasing the fantasies that filled our minds. You know how I loved you but my spirit was free, laughing at the questions that you once asked of me.

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?

Where are you going to, do you know? Now looking back at all we planned, we let many dreams just slip through our hands. Why must we want so long before we see how sad the answers to those questions can be?

Do you know where you're going to?
Do you like the things that life is showing you?
Where you going to, do you know?

Theme From Mahogany

Webster defines individualism, this Yearbook's theme, as a "system or condition in which each individual works for his own ends." Working to achieve your goals or ends, perhaps is what motivated you towards your successful completion of the past four years.

I hope you enjoyed these years. At times I bet you (or your parents) thought you'd never get through them. But you did and you'll accomplish whatever you desire in the years to come. The key is knowing what you want to achieve and then accepting your responsibilty to make the effort. In this respect, your individuality is a distinct and vital asset. Remember, however, that the freedom and the right to be an individual is most possible in a free society such as ours. And at the heart of a free society is a simple truth that free will (or individualism) can exist only to the extent that other individuals inour society can be equally individualistic.

Your individualism, so necessary and essential to your maturation as a human being is really dependent on the cooperative operation of the group and society in which you function. Sincere thanks to all of you for making my first year here so enjoyable. There are so many wonderful things about this school. Honestly, what I like and appreciate most is the warmth, friendship, and acceptance you have shown me. As I said in my first letter to you last August . . . I am glad to be here! I hope you were.

Robert Ross

After a year of planning the Career Center opened in the fall. It is designed to aid students in planning for their future studies and careers. It has been used by over 3,000 people in its first year. Mr. Cohen, the creator of the center, has been working for this kind of center for four years. Although a Career Center is not a new idea, Agoura's center provides Counseling, Work Experience, and the Career Center, all under one roof. In this way the student is professionally guided through, step by step.

On Your Education . . .

It may be that there is no other way of educating people. Possibly, but I don't believe it. In the meantime it would be a help at least to describe things properly, to call things by their right names. Ideally, what should be said to every child, repeatedly, throughout his or her school life is something like this:

You are in the process of being indoctrinated. We have not yet evolved a system that is not a system of indoctrination. We are sorry, but it is the best we can do. What you are being taught here is an amalgam of current prejudice and the choices of this particular culture. The slightest look at history will show you how impermanent these must be. You are being taught by people who have been able to accomodate themselves to a regime of thought laid down by their predecessors. It is a self-perpetuating system. Those of you who are more robust and individual than others, will be encouraged to leave and find ways of educating yourself - educating your own judgement. Those that stay must remember, always and at all time, that they are being molded and patterned to fit into the narrow and particular needs of this particular society."

Good Evening,

When I sat down to write this message, a wise old man, Ed Russo or Matiatma Ghandi, I always get the two confused . . . told me that since I looked more at home with a knife between my teeth than a pen in my hand I should forget it.

Then I began to think of all the people I should thank for their support and kindness to this over-bearing son of Italy. I really owe so many people so much and hope that I have already thanked them profusely for everything. If I haven't God forbid, I beg your pardon and pat you on your collective backs now.

I could say that this has been a great expreience and will, because it has been. I've met people, learned things, been a great lesson, been lucky enough to teach a few, and made a few greenbacks off the Homecoming Court Favorites.

My feelings about Laissez-Faire system of the economics put aside, let me give some advice I never follow . . . RELAX.

Thanks,

M. Capaldi, Somewhere in Agoura.

If you could be anyone in the world who would you be and why?

Karen Hankhammer

"I'm satisfied with who I am and I wouldn't want to be anyone else."

Dear Lyn,
Well never forget this incredibly boring class of spanish I and your speech on Peptalk and Bismola -- it kept me from going to sleep when I kept hugging Steffen - I keep on having fun and I don't want to- dont als anything you dont

Good luck,

Yours truly,
Winkle

P.S. I spell my name right!

This past year has been a great experience for me. It has given me the opportunity to meet new people and to get involved. I feel that this class Agoura High School has ever have. I feel this year we have gained more spirit and the cooperation from you and that is what makes it great. Thanks for the fun and fulfilling year I had being your president. I had a great time.

With Love,

Karen Brownfield

Lisa Robbins, Cindy Johnson, and Dana Reisman on their way to class.

May we all remember this first year at Agoura for in all of us we will hold the memories of those days that were. Each of us have grown in respect for one another and gained a better understanding of friendship. We have learned to be people of pride and also had experiences that will be helpful in the years to come. You did not get where you are now alone but together with friends.

It has been a good year, I will never forget it. And I hope all enjoy the next year look forward but look back once and awhile on the happy moments of your first year.. . . Thank You,

They Softly Walk

They are not gone who pass beyond the clasp of hand, out from the strong embrace. They are but come so close we need not grope with hands, nor look to see, nor try to catch the sound of feet.
They have put off their shoes safely to walk by day within our thoughts, to tread at night our dream - led paths of sleep.

They are not lost who find the sunset gate, the goal of all their faithful years.
Nor lost are they who reach the summit of their climb, the peak above the clouds and storms. They are not lost who find the light of sun and stars and God.

- Hugh Robert Orr -

Lynn, (I forgot, only one n),
Yound got something really special. Don't loose it over the summer.

Lyn:
We've had fun in P.E. together. I hope we have it together next year.

WE'RE NOT TOO BIG TO WANT YOUR BUSINESS.

We built our business on small accounts. So we treat each one like a big deal.

And we do other things for you in a big way. We offer 34 free customer services. Free money orders. Free copying service. And with a minimum balance, a free safe deposit box, and a free checking account at a major bank.

So remember Union Federal Savings. We're not too big to put ourselves out for you no matter how much money you're putting in.

HUGHES HOTELS
NEVADA

It costs you nothing to use Courtney's Calabasas Travel

Whether it's business or personal, Courtney's Calabasas Travel can assist you every step of the way - with airline tickets, cruises, resorts, hotels, business conferences and conventions.

First of all, you're dealing with friendly experts who know their way around the world like an experienced pilot knows his way across the sky.

Also, we're located in a quiet spot just across from the Calabasas Post Office. It's a relaxed atmosphere with plenty of free parking.

So why spend time and money making your own reservations and standing in line for tickets when our service costs you nothing - whether it's a trip to San Francisco or a cruise around the world.

Yes . . . There is a full service Advertising Agency in the San Fernando Valley that Specializes in electronics & computers.

Courtney/Wilson Advertising is a unique advertising agency, totally involved in the electronics/computer industry.

Our people understand the markets, the technology and the media.

That's why we continually come up with ads that achieve the highest readership, with publicity programs that reap page after page of "free" advertising, and & with brochures and catalogs that are product demonstrations in print.

That's also why we handle some of the most progressive companies in the West ... Powertec, Scanbe Div. of Canoga, Vadic, Zehntel, Benmar, iCOM Div. of Pertec, Computer Informatrix ..... just to name drop a few.

We've packaged some of these exceptional case histories on slides. Give us a ring and we'll show you what we've done for others - and can do for you

Autograph Space From Us to You

I don't much like this business of growing up.
Of course I hated being a kid,
and I probably won't be crazy
about being old.
But that's no consolation to me now.

Learning there really are four billion people in the world is unsettling.
Learning that most of them know
as little about me as I do about them
Has done wonders for my inferiority complex though.

The hypocrisy and sins of the desk-bound forty-year-olds isn't doing
a lot for my youthful idealism either.
Which implies I'll be a cynic
at twenty-five
And a desk-bound hypocrite at forty

Actually the only thing I'm really confident about
Is that in ten years I'll probably be alive,
Wondering what I'll be like in another ten years,
And wondering what I was like when I was seventeen.

Lynn,
It's been fun
in English and Dr. ED.
Hope you have fun on the road. Have a great summer see you next year

Love,

there are

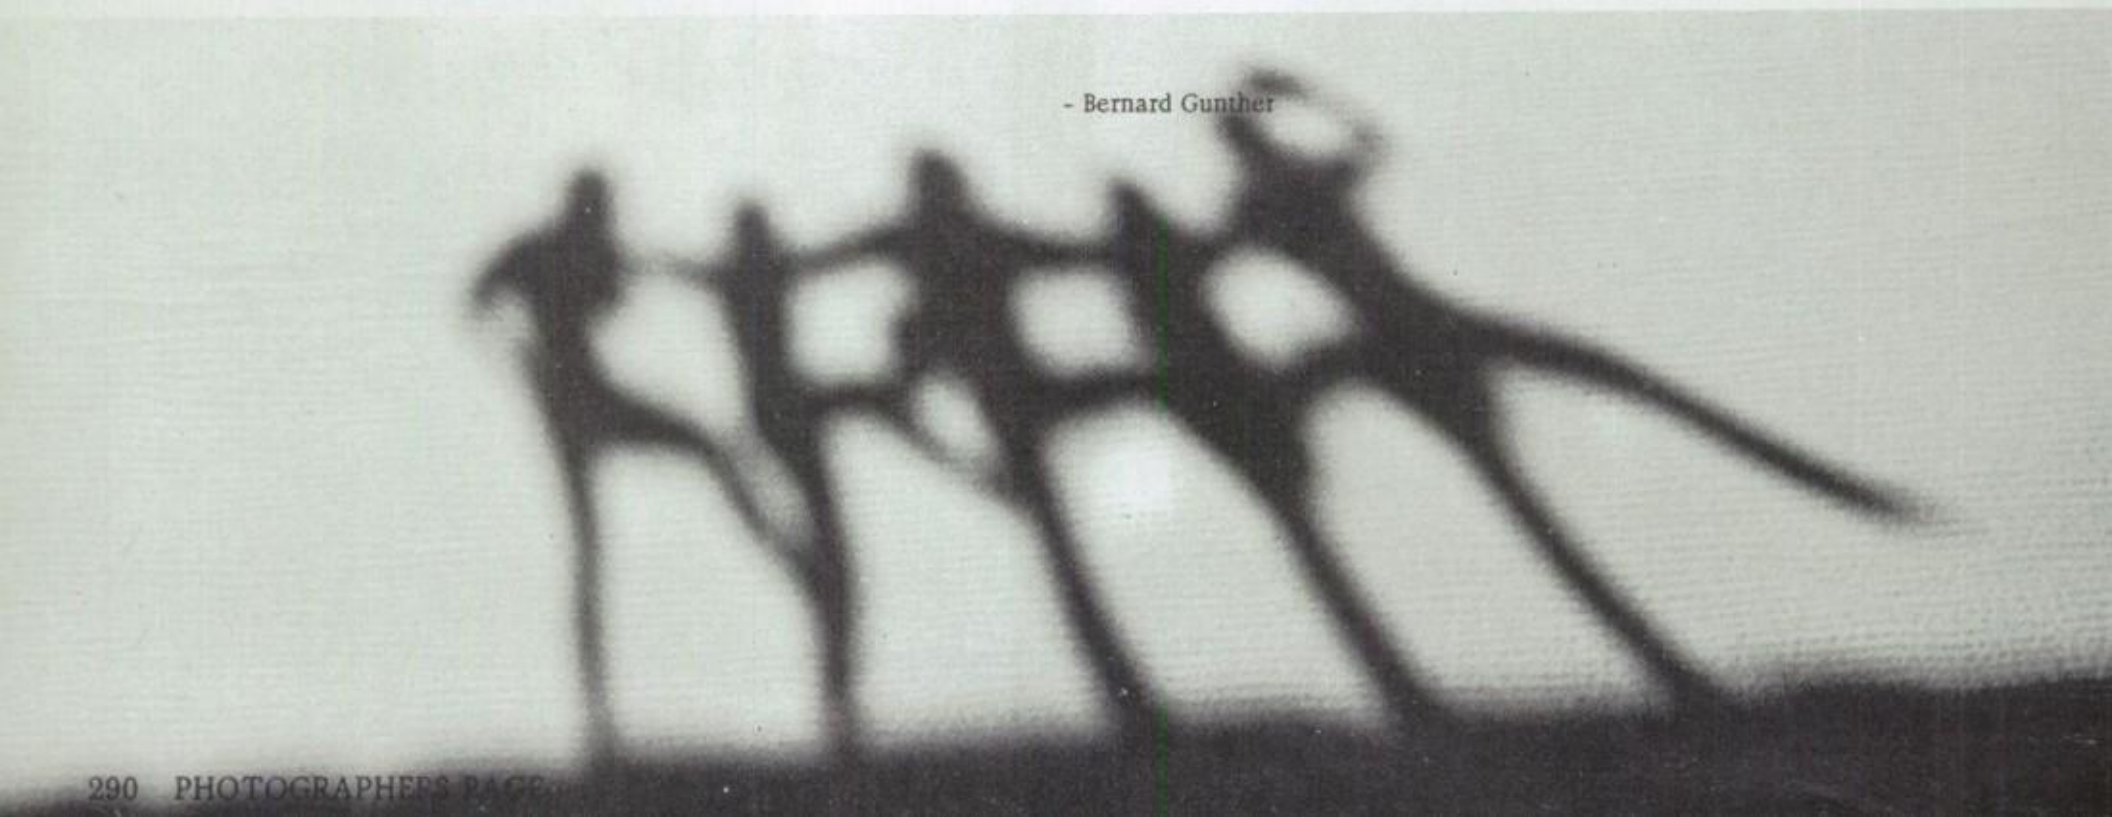
- Bernard Gunther



It is easy in the world to follow world's opinions;
It is easy in solitude to follow our own;
But the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence

Do not follow where the path may lead.
Go, instead, where there is no path
and leave a trail.

Dear Lynn,
You're a good kid
and you'll really
go far in this world.
Good luck (I hope you won't need it but it's there in case you do).
Love,
Kelly

There is a song by Neil Diamond that says:
"I am I said
to no none there,
and no one heard at all
not even the chair . . ."

In many ways, the sadness the searching of the song represents what these high school years are all about; constantly under pressure from our families, peers, and consciences, always trying to do the "right" thing, and at the same time, trying to live according to our own feelings. One of the first steps in becoming ourselves is realizing that the end of high school doesn't necessarily mean the end of the frustrating search for self that so many sing about in their songs.

There are many philosophies on "being your own person." Times will change, society, the people we know, our emotions will bring about changes in that spirit that is "Me".

Lynn,
your a sweat person
and glad I met you.
thanks for the times
I had copied off your paper. Have a great Summmer and maybe
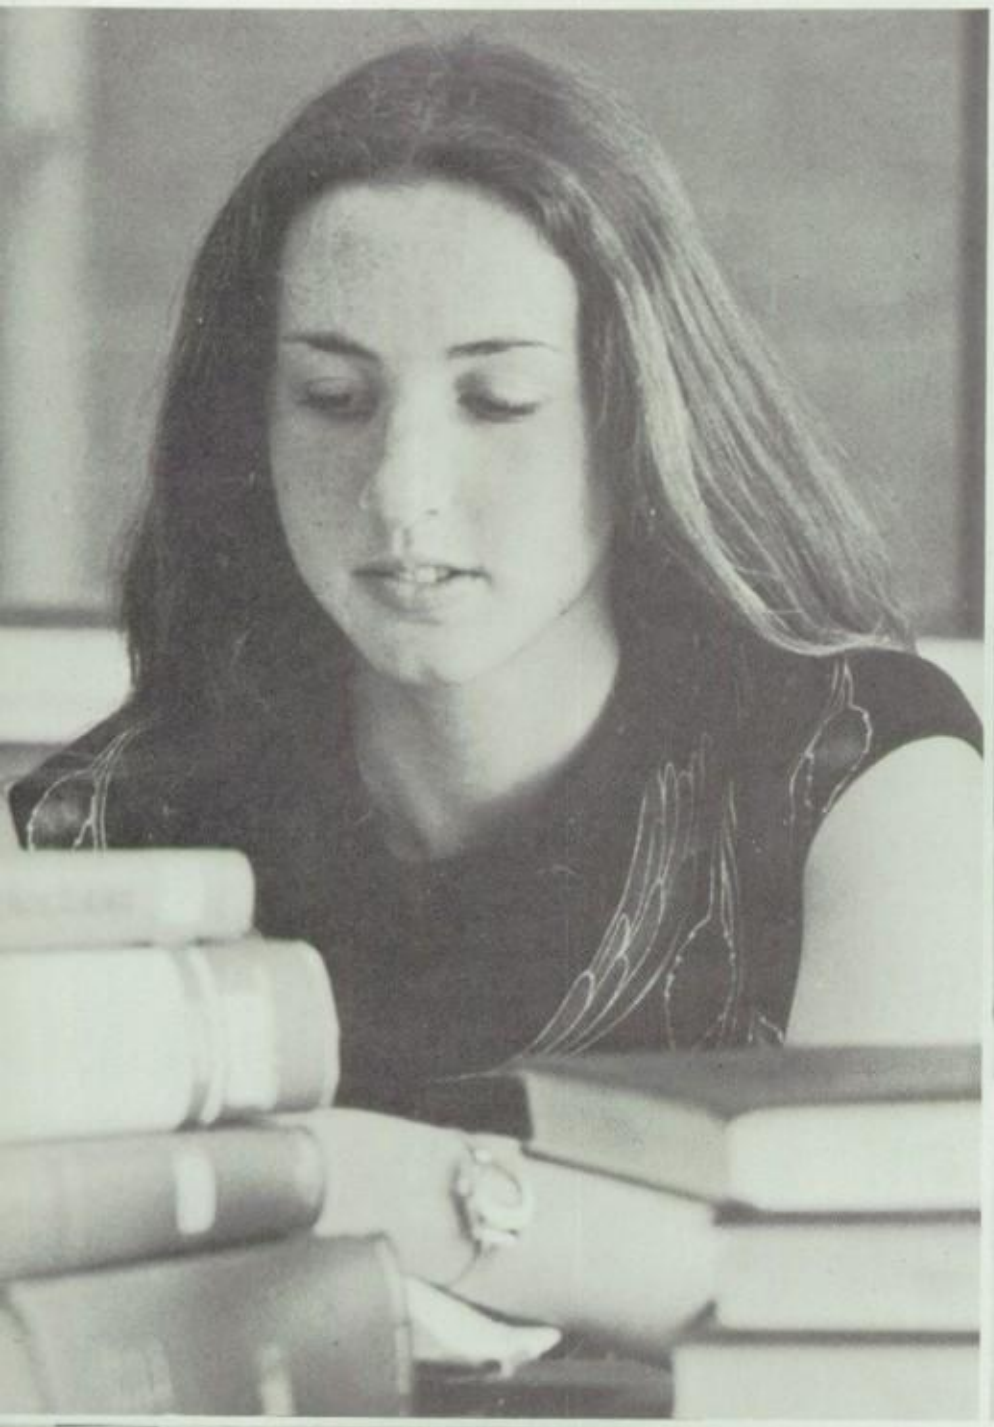
I'll see ye.
Love
Karen



Always be yourself. Be YOU. Even if that does mean conforming. Remember that we all conform in one way or another, it is human nature. It is the manner in which you conform, or to what you conform, that makes you unique.

And don't let anyone ever tell you that you are no more special than anyone else; don't let anyone ever convince you that you are "typical": there is one thing about you that is all your own, unlike anyone else: That is what you feel. No one can ever feel a certain feeling, at the same time, in quite the same way, that you do. Your feelings, your emotions, are you. BE!

Lyn - Its been nice knowing ya cause your really sweet.
take care
and have a nice summer
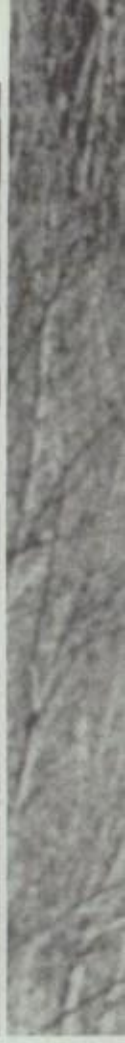
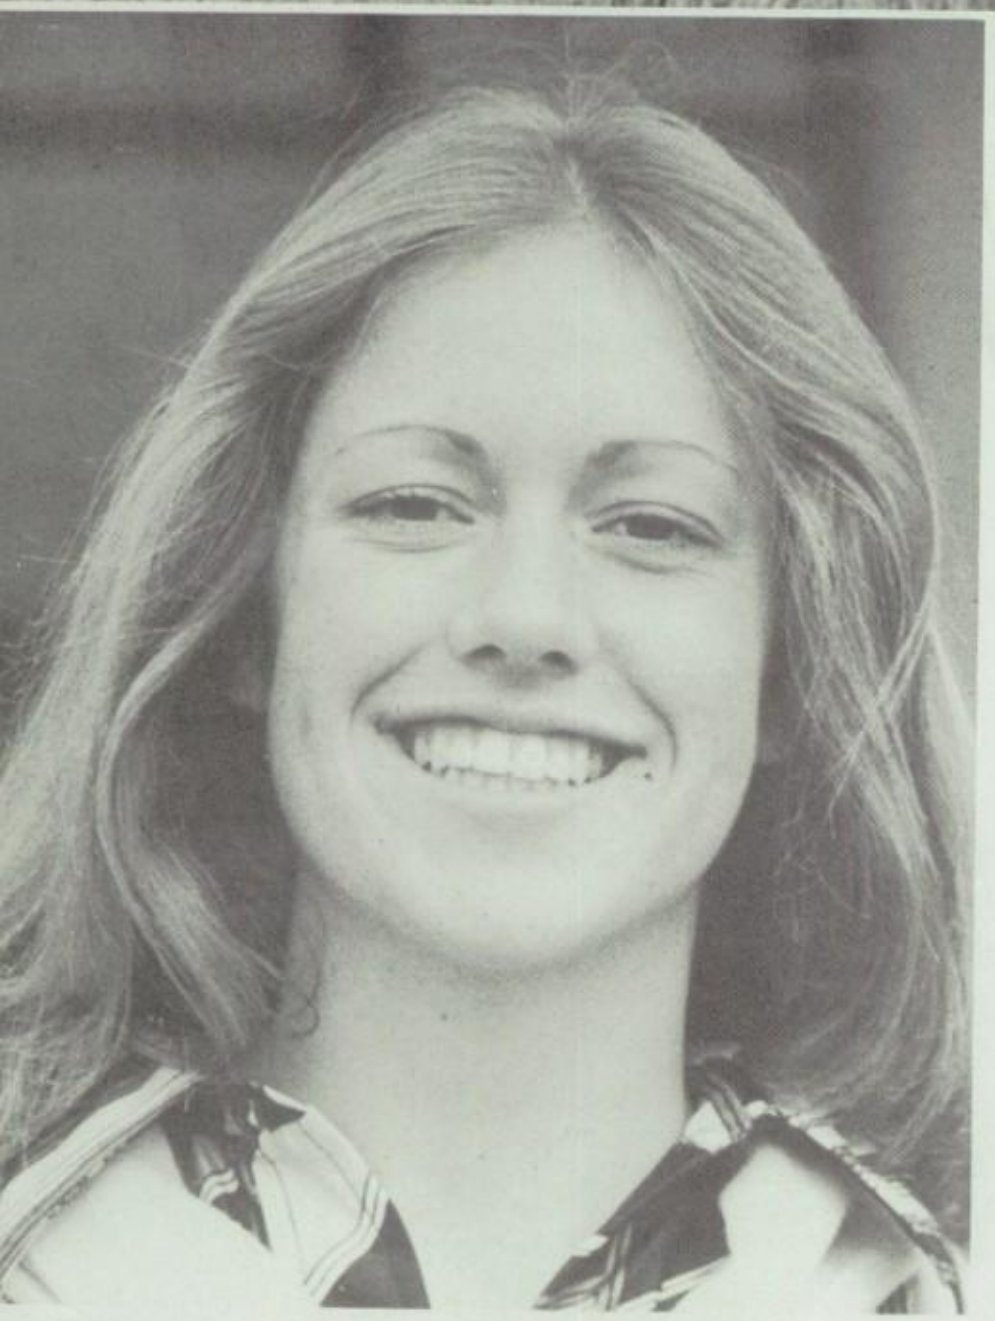
Luv
Dana





Oh very young
What will you leave us this time
You're only dancing on this earth
For a short while
And though your dreams may toss
And turn you now
They will vanish away
Like your daddy's best jeans
Denim blue fading up to the sky
And though you want him to last Forever you know he never will (You know he never will)
And the patches
Make the goodbye harder still Oh very young
What will you leave us this time
There'll never be a better chance
To change your mind
And if you want this world
To see (a better day)
Will you carry
The words of love with you
Will you ride
The great white bird into heaven
And though you want to last Forever you know you never will (You know you never will)
And the goodbye
Makes the journey harder still Oh very young
What will you leave us this time
You're only dancing on this earth
For a short while
On very young
What will you leave us this time.
-Cat Stevens -

Here, you have it finally. We really tried.

This book was intended for the individual. When we first sat down to figure things out, we wanted very sincerely to cover every aspect of every individual. Too late, I realized, that is impossible. I do hope you each see a little bit of yourself in this book, of who you are, or who you hope to be.

There were many conflicts on our little staff this year, and all of these troubles resulted in something good, somehow, in some small way. It's probably false to say we all became good friends, and certainly unrealistic. But there were moments when we felt a special bond with another member of the staff. These were good, real moments, even if an upset brought those feelings to the surface.

I just want to say thank you to every member of the staff. Each of you moved something in me this year, and I love and appreciate you for it.
Thank You to:

John Reich - for always taking the time to ask what was wrong when I was feeling down and out.

Sherry - for being patient with my faults and listening to me.

Leslie - for lending your shoulder to cry on that day last November. For that laugh of yours!

Kurt - for blowing a kiss on that same day, and telling me I wasn't a horrible editor.

Jeff Hall - for asking me how my love-life was!

Jeff Courtney - for the orange juice, the food, and the bite into the crunchy taco.

Ben - for being so (quiet) and artistic.

Brooke - for that everlasting good mood and smile.

Lynnette - for helping me realize cheerleaders are people too.

Lisa Faska - for those subtle jokes that too few people hear.

Margaret - for being as subtle as Lisa but still being you.

Lisa Grab - for being your cazy self when I needed it most of all.

Beth - for allowing yourself to be bitched at by two people at once.

Liz - for wearing a feather in your hair, and being all bouncy and cheery.

Dan - for saving us at the last minute.

Laura - for offering that prayer.

Dewayne - for that never-ending sense of humor, and for livening up those late deadlines.

I think it was all worth it.

Peace be with you,
Cathy Fox

A Philosophy

Our main problem is that we all have big plans to live for another thirty or forty years, and we get so involved in dreaming about what we'll do THEN, that we forget to live NOW:

We could die tomorrow. What did you do TODAY?

- C.L.F. -

Lynn,
I'm glad I got to know you and you're a really super sweet person. I wish I could see you next year but since you're moving I guess not. I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Stay sweet! I luv ya.
(Good luck on the Algebra final!)
Linda Lenn

Lynn,
I'm really glad I got to know you. You've been a really good friend and I wish you were going to be here next year. Think of the fun we could have had. Before you move to Vegas be sure to come to my house for a day or two. I'm able the fun times we had. (especially the time you got lost in P.C.) Have fun when you write to your boyfriend! Have fun next year & don't drive too fast!!
Love
Julie

Lynn,
I wish I could've had your address before school was out. I wanted to be in contact with you over the summer. Have a nice vacation and I'm sure that you will be fun in whatever you do. Have a good time!
Always,
Lynn

Lynn,
Since I can't think of anything original to say here, I'll just say the same old corny stuff. It's been a great year & I'm looking forward to a great summer and next year.
Always,
Tricia

Lynn-
I'm really happy about getting to know you - hope to see you in person in the near future.
Love, Dana

Lyn-i-poo,
I have a list to write but I really don't feel like it. Just let me say I love you & miss you terribly. Please write me, I'll write back. Thanks for all the pictures & letters you've sent me. I'm sorry I haven't written but I've been so busy. I'll be back in Dec. for Christmas & I'll see you then. Please write me & tell me how you are & what you're doing. Love always, Dana

Dear Lynn,
You are a unique person & I'm glad I've had the chance to get to know you. I wish I had met you sooner. I did get a little attached to you but it doesn't matter. I'll talk to you soon. Take care of yourself. Love, C.B.
P.S. Maybe we can get together sometime during this vacation O.K.?
Love always, Randy (C.B. Dr. Pepper)

Lyn-i-poo,
I have a list to write but I really don't feel like it. Just let me say I love you & miss you terribly. Please write me & tell me how you are & what you're doing. Love always, Dana

Dear lynn,

lynn, lynn, lynn. What can I say except, that you have been great friend. We have had fun all year long, going shoping and everything else. Remember the fox on the bus, the xmas shoping, walking through Micky's, then getting a ride home in that car. I hated it. Now your moving away, and I wish you weren't. I will miss you. Have fun with all your boyfriends because you will have many. Your very cute, yes you are! I know that what you do you will have fun doing it. (In Vegas). I hope I can see you this summer before you move, please write because I will write back.

love always

Hello Lynn! I'm really not strange. I'm just weird. As you can see I'm outside doing the splinter in your head bannister of life thing.

Leigh,
It really been nice knowing you.
You're a great friend,
And I hope we get to be better friends. I hope you have a fun summer, and I'll see ya next year. Love Cindy Stephens

Lynn,
I'm really glad we got to know eachother.
I wish we had had more classes together.
Don't you wish you had Stayed in Quints?(ugh)
Anyway, have a really great Summer and I hope we see a lot of eachother next year.
Love
Always Sandy.

Lynn,
I'm really glad I got to know you this year. You're a really sweet girl. Don't ever change. I'm really sorry your moving to Kas
also I'll miss ya
lots. Love ya.
PS you guys are great neighbors!

Lynn
I'm going to tell you a few points, Sue helped me write this. First of all, when you I get to vegas dont be so shy. get out are set them. I really don't know what to say or now to say it. So I wont say any more. I Probably won't see you again after I go on vacation
but have a good times and a good summer.
Love
Steve

Lynn,
If you gotta go to Las Vegas, at least so to Sue's so I can see you. Like don't become one of them full-fledged gamblers before June 18. Have a good summer and all that shit!

Fates,
Charlie

Lynn ↖ sorry about that.
Why are you moving?
I'm really gonna miss ya.

and the best of luck to you love, Jill

Lynn
Love ya Stay out of trouble!! Have a good summer and keep touch. 280-1881
We'll have to get together sometime. I wish I could have been more to you but I'm glad we were friends. I wish it hadn't been so far away. I wish I had a car so I could come down to see you. I wish I had more money so I could go to Las Vegas and be with you. I wish I had been more than a friend to you. I wish I had been more than a friend to you.

Lynn,
Its been nice
getting to know you.
I really love spanish,
don't you. ha! ha!
Hope I see you over the summer

LUV Paul

Lynn -
I've enjoyed
you, dear, in class
If you hadn't slumped in the middle you probably would have enjoyed it more Good Luck Kathie

Lynn:
It's been a really G-R-E-A-T year having you in my English class
and I hope to see you next year.
FRIends Always
Donna

Lynn,
I really think your super would say the same about Sue,
to have me sign her yearbook, I make her see that I had nothing to do Chris's relationship, but I doubt she would anyway good luck to both you, and Sue your both great people _love ya, Alder

IT WAS REALLY HAVING
YOU IN ME 7TH YEAR.
A REAL BUDDY
LUCK NEXT YEAR.
YOU DON'T MOVE,

LOVE,
LYNN SPITZ

Lynn,
I've enjoyed
you in class and a-lot of fun to be with
- but its obvious she's not going only wish I could with Sues understand,
